Dear Mr. Young,

In response to your letter of May 22, 2001:

30 Day Post-General Report (10/19/00-11/27/00)

Item 1: Contribution from the Oneida Tribe reported on Schedule A:

It is my understanding that contributions from Native American Tribes are to be reported on Schedule A as individual contributions but that the limit for contributions from the tribes is the same as contributions from political action committees -- $5,000.00 per election. If my understanding is correct than the $4,000.00 aggregate year to date contribution from the Oneida Tribe does not exceed the limits.

Item 2: Contribution to the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee reported on Schedule B:

The $30,000.00 sent to the DCCC on October 20, 2000 should have been designated as "excess campaign funds" and not designated as "dues." The $20,000.00 sent to the DCCC on October 24, 2000 was properly designated as "dues."

October Quarterly Report (8/24/00-9/30/00)
